Stacey LeRoy

Aug. 8th 1985 - Jun. 2nd 2002

You were the energy; when you arrived in a room, attitudes and spirits just seemed to be lifted up. You did not do this intentionally, you just had so much love and energy that it was impossible to ignore you. Whenever I had important questions to ask you, you always were there with the right answers. You were one of those people that everybody wanted to be around. All I can think of is how crazy you were and how I miss you - a whole bunch. I love you so much, Stace. You helped me through so much and I promise that I will keep you in my heart forever.

Mr. Damon Howard's Quote:

I teach to stay young and passionately alive, as I constantly deal with the energy and positive enthusiasm (usually) of students unfolding lives. I enjoy sharing my enthusiasm for life and the basic values that teach us that life's greatest joy's and victories are not cheaply bought but are paid for by those who are disciplined and focused long enough to realize that the greatest gifts we receive are those that only we can give ourselves.

Special thanks to our advisor Cory Rogers, without him none of this would have been possible. Thanks for a great year! - Kristen and Anthony

Junior and Senior DECA

"A definite sense of pride exists if you are a DECA student at MHS," states the MHS handbook. This declaration of pride has proved to be true throughout the entire school year. From running the school store, to holding concession stands at sporting events, the DECA students at MHS strive to serve their school.

DECA officers: Sean Ewas, Craig Ennis, Tim Zaifides, Taryn Dion, Caitlin Murphy, Amanda Craig, Kendra Sullivan, Marissa Boutin, Joe King, Advisor Cory Rogers, Andy Hart, Rob Rea, Ashly Teed, Laura Edwards, Willie Carnello, Lyndsey Murphy, Randy Townsend, and Joe Dupuis.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is the leader among organizations that promotes appropriate recognition for students who reflect outstanding accomplishments in the area of scholarship, character, leadership and service. NHS membership is often regarded as a valid indicator that a student will succeed in life and particularly in studies at the post- secondary level.

Speech and Theater Workshop

The Speech and Theatre Workshop has had a very exciting year! It was the 25th anniversary of the workshop and a special "That's Entertainment"(directed by Andrew Dargelis and Choreographed by Jen Dargelis) is planned to commemorate the anniversary, in June. This year's annual fall show was The Skin of Our Teeth by Thorton Wilder (Directed by Andrew Osbourne). In March, STW participated in the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild Festival. Lily's Purple Plastic Purse, a play based on the children's books by Kevin Henkes (directed by Tim Sullivan) was the piece submitted. Middleborough also hosted the event in the Wayne Caron Auditorium.

Along with these three mainstage productions, the STW also produced several other shows. This year was the first "Senior Directed One- Act Festival." The winner of the one-act festival then performed their show at the "Arts Festival," a festival in conjunction with the art, music, and drama departments. This year, the workshop also took a trip to New York City in conjunction with concert choir to see Aida.

Boston Globe Drama Festival
Never the Sinner

In March 2002, MHS hosted the 74th annual Massachusetts High School Drama Festival. Middleborough entered a production of Never the Sinner by Jack Logan, a true story based on the famous Leopold and Loeb trial in 1924. The play is about two brilliant teenage boys who base their philosophy of life on the writings of Frederich Nietzsche.
Jared Craig played the role of Nathan Leopold and Michael Gailey played Richard Loeb, both recieved acting awards at the festival. Nichole Guenard also recieved an acting award for her portrayal of Germaine, Richard Loeb's girlfriend. Andrew Remillard and Mickey Howard played the two famous lawyers, Robert Crowe and Clarence Darrow. Conor Sullivan, Mason Vangel, an Joseph DiBari played the three reporters, who acted as narrators throughout the show. Patty Sorgman and Trevor Dobrowsky played the two psychologists who evaluate the two boys and write a psychological evaluation on the two. Finally Jen DiBari and Julie Crowley played the two photographers. Mandy Priestly, Julia Konish, and Katie Bresse were on the crew doing an amazing job with the lighting and sound design.

YMCA Youth and Government

The YMCA youth and government program is a nationally recognized youth government training program in which forty states participate. Members who join, research and write up legeslative bills, news stories and prepare a legal brief to defend a court case before student judges. The ultimate goal and event is when students take over the actual state house and in mock legislative actions try to get their bills passed or legal cases won.

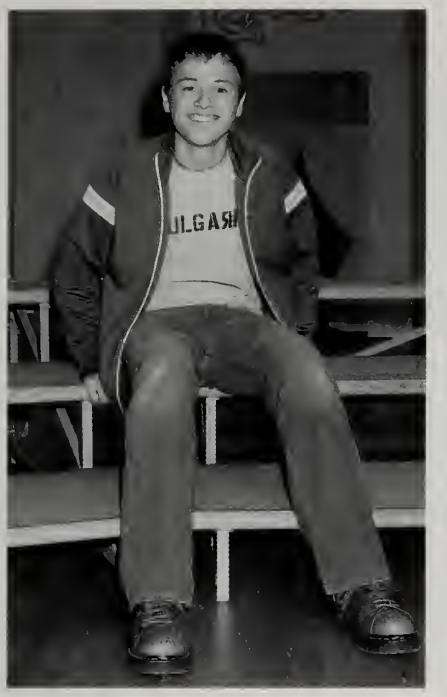
HOBY



HOBY is an excellent opportunity for a high school sophomore to learn valuable leadership skills that they can use in any leadership position they may hold. This sophomore is selected through their demonstration of outstanding leadership potential. This year HOBY has been restructured. The program is now called MassSTAR. This event is a three day leadership conference held on the campus of Bridgewater State College during the last weekend of May. (to left): Trevor Dobrowsy

PCC

MHS Freshmen and Sophomore Student Council

The MHS Student Council prides itself on being the largest student council in the state of Massachusetts. With close to 200 members, we truly represent all students in our community. Our programs have been recognized on a regional, state and even on the national level for excellence. The students who make up Student Council exemplify what it means to be a student leader. It is these students that not only set the tone in the building, but also lead the charge within our state.

"Graduation"

So we talked all night about the rest of our lives, where we're gonna be when we turn 25, I keep thinking times will never change, keep on thinking things will always be the same, but when we leave this year we won't be coming back, no more hanging out cause we're on a different track, and if you got something you need to say, you better say it right now 'cause you don't have another day, 'cause we're moving on and we can't slow down, these memories are playing like a film without sound, I keep thinking of that night in June, I don't know much of love but it came too soon, and there was me and you and when we got real blue, we'd stay at hometalking on the telephone, we'd get so excited and we'd get so scared, laughing at ourselves thinking life's not fair, and this is how it feels... As we go on, we remember all the times we had together, and as our lives change, come whatever, we will still be friends forever. So if we get the big jobs and we make the big money, when we look back at now will all our jokes still be funny? Will we still remember everything we learned in school, still be trying to break every single rule? Will little Brainy Bobby be the stockbrocker man?Will Heather find a job that won't interfere with her tan? I keep~keep thinking that its not goodbye, keep on thinking its our time to fly, and this is how it feels... as we go on, we remember, all the times we hadtogether,and as our lives change, come whatever, we will still be friends forever. Will we think about tomorrow like we think about now? Can we survive it out there? Can we make it somehow? I guess I thought that this would never end, and suddenly it's like we're women and men. Will the past be a shadow that will follow us around, will these memories fade when I leave this town? I keep~keep thinking that its not goodbye, keep on thinking it's our time to fly!!

Senior's Soar With Sachem Spirit!

To our Erica:
The years have gone so fast. Remember no matter where life takes you, your family will always be there for you. May your life be filled with as much love and happiness as you have brought to ours, we wish you success in whatever you do!
We love you,
Mom, Barry, Chris, Kevin & Diane

Congratulations Erin!

One of the best things in life is having you for a daughter. You've brought laughter and joy to our lives and so much love to our hearts. We are very proud of you.

Love you,

I BELIEVE IN YOU - I want to tell you that I believe in you; I believe in your mind and all the dreams, intelligence, and determination within you. You can accomplish anything. You have so much open to you, so please don't give up on what you want from life and from yourself. Please don't put away the dreams inside of you. You have the power to make them real. You have the power to make yourself exactly what you want to be. Believe in yourself the way I do, and nothing will be beyond your reach. I Love you, Mom.

Krista -
Always remember the value of friendship in your lifetime... especially "girl" friends!!

We love you,

Jennifer
Parents hearts are always filled with wishes for their daughter,
and we keep many special hopes
within our hearts for you.
We want you to be happy with the young woman you have become...
your gentleness, compassion,
and warmth set you apart.
We want you to be true to both yourself and to your dreams and to feel fulfilled in any work or role that you might choose.
But more than anything else in life,
we want you to feel loved and to know that you have family and friends who will always be there and always care.
We Love You,
Mom and Dad

Allie,

We are so proud of who you are! Your humor, wit, talent, and achievements continue to amaze us. Your determination to strive for the best will only bring you success. Always remember how much we love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Melissa, Brain
and Gram

To my wonderful daughter Erica:
I remember when you were a little girl, I told you that you could be anything you wanted to be. You insisted you were going to be a butterfly. I never imagined you'd be right. Spread your wings and fly my beautiful butterfly!

Remember I'll always be here for you!
God bless, Love always,
MOM

You know, as I look back on all these years. I start to realize that all these groups and people I've spent most of my adolescent life with, have shaped me into who I am. I realize that the closer I get to leaving, the more I want to stay just that little longer. Just to have a great time with people I might never see again. All the lost friends because I wasn't popular. I just want to say that all that now seems frivolous and means nothing because everything is going to change the day we get that diploma.
All in all, I was just another brick in the wall.

When I close my eyes I can see for miles There's comfort in my dark seat And chaos in the aisles These eyes are not your eyes And these eyes are not the color that Your arid eyes might be When I close my eyes I remember how to smile Under my umbrella I'm an accomplished exile These eyes are not your eyes And these eyes are not the color that Your arid eyes might be No, I was not around When those eyes of yours decided So I refuse to kneel before the sights you choose to see If this is right, I'd rather be wrong If this is sight, I'd rather be blind

It always seems that I have too much to say, but alas, at times when it could be most beneficial, the words do not flow. If there is one realization that I have made during my time at MHS, it is that people do not truly live until they fully experience life outside of this box. I hope everyone gets out and lives a bit, there is a lot to see in this world. Enjoy the sanctity of this place, but relish the disturbance of another. Don't limit yourselves. Goodbye and good luck! Thank You Mom and Dad for always pushing me to do my best. My grandparents for all their love. Dave for always having my back. The boys at BMA for helping make me who I am today. Laura for helping me through so much. Jim for all the laughs. Kara for showing me what it means to love someone and for always making me smile.I will always love all of you. To everyone else, Chas your dreams and don't let anything stop you because in the end everything we do, is just everything we've done.

Random equals life This works for everything in this remember that It may be your sole purpose in life simply to serve as a warning to others
On a more serious note I would like to say that this has been a good four years in this school not the school part but the people part. These years I have made new friends strengthen old friendships and unfortunately some new enemies. There are to many people to list so if anyone forgets that you are my friend, just go away and that's all I really have to say except one more thing Everyone may your life be like T.P. long and useful.

Dance Club

New this year to MHS, the dance club can be found on Monday afternoons laughing, smiling and most importantly, dancing. Learning dances in the styles of jazz, tap, ballet, and even "stomp", all agree that it's all about the love of dance. Of course, finding your own personal groove doesn't hurt. With assistance from the six captains, dance club is sure to be around for quite some time.
Captains: Rachael Phinney, Amanda Craig, Laura Edwards, Kim Goble, Naomi Gonzalez, and Cali Cornell.
